

ACT OF PARLIAMENT Anent

The Excysse of Ferrintosh.

AT Edinburgh, the Sixteenth day of July one Thousand Six Hundred Ninety and five years, For as much as upon the second day of July one Thousand Six hundred and Ninety, their Majesties and the Estates of Parliament Did, by their Act, for the Reasons therein mentioned, Ferm the Excysse of Ferrintosh, to Duncan Forbes of Cullodden, and his Successors Heretors thereof, for the yearlie Tack duty of four hundred Merks; which sum, is expressly declared, by the said Act, to be the yearly proportion of annexed Excysse, payable out of the saids Lands, to His Majesties Exchequer. And now although the said annexed Excysse, be to raised off of the Liquor, and not off of the boll; Yet seing, the quota or value of the said annexed Excysse is still the same, as it was formerly, and so can infer no ground for alteration of the Act already made in favors of the said Duncan. Therefore His Majesty, with Consent of the Estates of Parliament do declare That, by the present Act anent the Excysse upon Liquor, there is nothing altered, or innovat, of the sett formerly made to the said Duncan, of the Excysse of his Lands of Ferrintosh; Excepting only that the saids Lands are lyable, to their just proportion, conform to the foresaid sett, of what additionall Excysse is or shall be imposed by Law upon the Kingdom. Ordaining hereby, Any generall Tacks of Excysse, that shall be hereafter granted by our Thesaury, and Exchequer, to be with the Exception of the foresaid Act. Extracted forth of the Records of Parliament by George Viscount of Tarbat, Lord Mc. Leod and Castle-haven &c. Clerk to the Parliament, and to His Majesties Exchequer Registers and Rolls

Tarbat Cl. Register.